

KIRK LAPOINTE

FOR MAYOR OF WEST VANCOUVER

"West Vancouver deserves leadership that is prudent, consultative, and prepared to work with residents on a real plan for the future."

—KIRK LAPOINTE

KIRK LAPOINTE is a veteran journalist, business executive, and community leader with decades of experience in public accountability, communications, and governance. Kirk has led major news organizations, worked in senior business roles, and served on local non-profit boards.

WEST VANCOUVER DESERVES MORE FROM GOVERNMENT. WE NEED TO:

- ▼ Ensure value for money and financial discipline in public spending
- ▼ Build a stronger local economy
- ▼ Give residents a voice before decisions are made, not after
- ▼ Demand stronger accountability at Metro Vancouver

GET TO KNOW KIRK

- ▼ Led CTV News, Southam News, and Hamilton Spectator, held senior roles at Vancouver Sun, National Post, and CBC. Was publisher and editor in chief at Business in Vancouver and vice president editorial for Glacier Media, its parent company, and a columnist for North Shore News and BIV.
- ▼ Long career in newspapers, TV, digital and news agencies.
- ▼ Taught Ethics, Journalism and Leadership at UBC. Was Ombudsman at CBC, Executive Director of worldwide Organization of News Ombudsmen. Led KidSafe Society, director on Vancouver Opera board, past director on National Reading Campaign.
- ▼ Husband, father, grandfather, runner, goaltender, music lover.

CAMPAIGN@KIRKLAPOINTE.CA

VOTE OCTOBER 17

KIRKLAPOINTE.CA

